4.2 We continuously implement and monitor technical and organisational security measures to protect the personal information we hold, against unauthorised access, as well as accidental or wilful manipulation, loss or destruction.

4.3 The Company may appoint third parties, such as Computer and/or IT enable tools, in which case personal information will be accessible , for purposes of its operation, to external third parties appointed by the Company, if necessary. The updated list of such third parties may be requested and will be provided upon such request.

4.4 We will take reasonable steps to ensure that operators, agents, etc. that process personal information in jurisdictions outside South Africa, apply adequate safeguards as outlined in this Manual.

5. RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

5.1 A Data Subject may have rights under the South African and other laws to have access to its Personal Information and to request the Company to rectify, delete or restrict use of same.

5.2 The Company acknowledges that a Data Subject may also have rights to object to its personal Information being used and/or such consent being withdrawn at any stage, however, the Company reserves the right to refuse service should mandatory information not be supplied.

5.3 The Company acknowledges that a Data Subject may also have the right to ask for the transfer of Personal information made available to the Company and to withdraw its consent to use the Personal Information.

5.4 Any such request must be addressed directly to the Company with the details provided in clause 2 of this manual.

5.5 Should User or any other person have signed up for news letter or any other marketing strategy, such user or person has the right to opt-out from such marketing and the Company will adhere to such request.

6. RETENTION AND DISTRUCTION OF INFORMATION

6.1 The Company will retain and store Personal Information for the period for which the information is required to serve its primary purpose or legitimate interest or for the period required to comply with an applicable legal requirement imposed by law, whichever is longer.

6.2 Documents will be destroyed after the termination of the retention period, or as determined by the Company from time to time.

6.3 Any original documents collected by the Company will be returned to the holder thereof.

6.4 Deletion of electronic records will be conducted in consultation with the IT department to ensure that the deleted information is incapable of being recovered.

7. PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING RECORDS

7.1 A Requester must comply with all the procedural requirements as set out in Section 53 of PAIA when making the request.

7.2 Attached hereto as Annexure "A" is the prescribed 'Request for Access Form' to be completed by the Requester and to be submitted along with the prescribed fee and/or deposit, should a fee and/or deposit be applicable.

7.3 The aforementioned is to be submitted to the Information Officer at the physical address or email address stated in this manual.

7.4 The request form must contain sufficient detail to enable the Information Officer to identify:

7.4.1 The Record(s) / information being requested;

7.4.2 The identity of the requester;

7.4.3 The form of access that is required, if the request is granted;

7.4.4 The contact details of the requester; and

7.4.6 the right that the Requester is seeking to protect or exercise and an explanation as to why the record(s)/information is necessary to protect or exercise this right.

7.5 The Information Officer may request further reasonable information to assist him/her in obtaining and/or identifying the information/records.

7.6 The failure to supply sufficient information as set out herein, may delay the processing of the request until such time that all required information is provided and the prescribed time period as indicated in clause 7.9 hereof, will not commence until the requester has furnished all the abovementioned information to the Information Officer.

7.7 Proof of the capacity in which the Requester is making the request must accompany the request for access should same be made on behalf of another person and the request must still comply with the requirements set out in paragraph 7.4 hereof. The proof must also be to the satisfaction of the Information Officer and therefore, the Information Officer may apply his/her discretion in accepting the proof as provided and may choose not to grant access the records/information should he/she have reason to believe that the Requester is not duly authorised to do so.

7.8 Should the Requester not be able to complete the access form due to illiteracy or disability, the request may be made orally to the Information Officer and the Information Officer is to keep a detailed record of the request.

7.9 Such a request will be processed by the Company within 30 (thirty) business days from receipt thereof, unless the Information Officer has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Requester that circumstances exist why the request requires special consideration and/or time an extension of time.

7.10 The Company will inform the Requester in writing, unless the request was made in terms of clause 7.8 hereof in which case the Requester will be informed orally, whether the access has been granted or denied.

7.11 In the instance where the confirmation is given orally, the Information Officer is to keep detailed record thereof.

7.12 The prescribed fee as set out herein must be paid before the information / records can be processed further and/or made available to the Requester. If the requester is unsure of any applicable fee, he/she may request such detail by directing an email to the Information Officer.

8. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

8.1 The Company may, subject to the exceptions contained in Chapter 4 of PAIA, refuse a Request for Access in accordance with Chapter 4 of PAIA in the following, but not limited to same, circumstances:

8.1.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person, where such disclosure of Personal Information would be unreasonable;

8.1.2 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the Records contain:

8.1.2.1 Trade Secrets of that third party;

8.1.2.2 Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of the third party, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to financial or commercial interest of such third party; and/or

8.1.2.3 Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, the disclosure of which is likely to prejudice the third party in contractual or other negotiations and would be in breach of commercial competition laws and principles.

8.1.3 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;

8.1.4 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;

8.1.5 Mandatory protection of Records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;

8.1.6 Protection of the confidential commercial information of the Company;

8.1.7 Research information of the Company or a third party, if such disclosure would place the research or the researcher at a serious disadvantage; and

8.1.8 Requests for Records that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

9. INFORMATION OR RECORDS NOT FOUND

9.1 If the Company is not able to find the records that the Requester has requested despite a reasonable and diligent search and it believes either that the records are lost or that the records are in its possession but not unattainable, the Requester will receive a notice in this regard from the Information Officer in the form of an affidavit setting out the measures taken to locate the document and accordingly the inability to locate such document.

9.2 The Company undertakes to assist the requested in any further search involving 3rd parties, however, the assistance will be conditional on the business impact thereof on the Company.\

10. REMEDIES OF REQUESTER UPON REFUSAL

- 10.1 The Company does not have an internal appeal procedure. As such, the decision made by the Information Officer is final, and Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the Request for Access is refused.
- 10.2 In accordance with sections 56(3) (c) and 78 of PAIA, a Requester may apply to a court for relief within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief.

11. FEES

- 11.1 When the Request for Access is received by the Information Officer, the Information Officer will by notice require the Requester, other than a internal Requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the Request for Access.
- 11.2 Prescribed request fees are set out in Annexure “B” attached hereto. The Company reserves the right to amend such fees at any time which amendments will be captured in an updated annexure B to this manual.
- 11.3 Should the search for a Record requires more than the prescribed hours for this purpose, the Information Officer will notify the Requester to pay as a deposit, the prescribed portion of the access fee, being not more than one third of the total expected costs, which would be payable if the Request for Access is granted.
- 11.4 The Information Officer will withhold a Record until the Requester has paid the fees set out in Annexure B, if any fees are applicable.
- 11.5 A Requester whose Request for Access to a Record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the Record for disclosure, including making arrangements to make same available in a requested format provided for in PAIA.
- 11.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a Request for Access which is refused, the Information Officer will repay the deposit to the Requester.

12. DECISION TO GRANT ACCESS TO RECORDS

- 12.1 The Company will decide whether to grant or decline the Request for Access within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the Request for Access and must give notice to the Requester with reasons (if required) to that effect.
- 12.2 The period referred to above may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days if the Request for Access is for a large number of Records or the Request for Access requires a search for Records held at another office of the Company and the Records cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.
- 12.3 The Company will notify the Requester in writing should an extension of time as contemplated above be required.
- 12.4 If, in addition to a written reply from the Information Officer, the Requester wishes to be informed of the decision on the Request for Access in any other manner, the Requester must state the manner and particulars so required, which request will be reasonably considered by the Information Officer.
